

Adnan Abdullah Bushnaq
+962795629696
Bushnaq_Adnan@yahoo.co.nz

August 1966 – June 2005 Jordan Petroleum Refinery Company:

January 2005 – June 2005

Consultant supervising activities of Refinery Company strategic restructuring contract with Sofreco Co.

January 2004 – January 2005

Deputy General Manager – Refinery Manager.

October 2003 – January 2004

Acting General Manager of Refinery Company.

August 2002 – October 2003

Deputy General Manager- Refinery Manager.

1966 – June 2002

Assistant refinery manager for projects with responsibility for civil, mechanical and electrical design and supervision and also covering refinery development activities and refinery revamp projects for upgrading of units to reach a capacity of 4.5 million tons/year.

The above period saw various projects and activities of many-varied engineering aspects, details of which included the implementation of JPRC ERP project, the follow up from concept stage to the final commissioning of the new Aqaba South Oil Storage and Facilities Project and the preparation of documentation and study and follow up of Refinery Fourth Stage Expansion Project feasibility.

Various large projects in this phase were realized with total project activities responsibility from requirements stage to completion and startup, such as projects large storage tanks projects, LPG filling stations and LPG storage projects, Refinery energy conservation projects schemes and various large environmental, infrastructure, power cogeneration, building and industrial and factories projects.

Training courses

Various management courses in higher management, operations research, computer database management methodologies, Enterprise Resource Planning, Fortran programming and numerical analysis, arbitration procedures, management skills, linear and non-linear programming and optimization and non-linear and plastic analysis of structures.

Good knowledge and experience of legal and arbitration aspects of contracts, contract law, and economic evaluation of projects.

Adnan Abdullah Bushnaq
+962795629696
Bushnaq_Adnan@yahoo.co.nz

Education: Degree in Civil and Municipal Engineering, University College, London, June 1965.

Objective:

Experienced general manager with 50+ years in the oil and gas industry, civil engineering and construction.

Experience Record:

2012 – Present

Worked in promoting and building geo-energy projects for heating and air-conditioning. Consultations in oil and gas and power stations projects. Consultations in renewable energy projects. Involvement in YMAX projects. Follow-up of petroleum and civil engineering design ventures.

July 2005 – September 2012: Jordan National Petroleum Company: Member of the board of directors.

Participated in the planning and management activities. Culminating in the tendering and contracts award of the Company concession and production sharing agreement for the Risha concession zone.

The Company was joined by British Petroleum Company in the concession, where BP was in charge of investigation, detailed geological and seismic testing and comprehensive studies of the field production capacity, with the aim of achieving feasible size hydrocarbon production volumes.

BP undertaking continued for five years at an estimated cost of 500 million dollars, and included 3-D seismic investigation of 5500 square kilometers of the 7600 square kilometers concession, the investigation for revamping of existing wells and the drilling of one upper zone and one deep zone well.

Other activities in NPC included award to NPC of East Safawy production investigation, drilling production wells prior to BP sharing of concession, revamping of Company drilling rigs, various field and reservoir assessments undertaken by qualified consultants, plant and equipment maintenance and continuous training programs and facilities upgrades.